About MAK:

The Central America committee is a solidarity organization. In everyday speech, we call ourselves MAK MellemAmerika Komiteen). Our aim is to mobilize an active solidarity with the peoples of Central America.

Central America The committee actively supports the struggle for social justice, self-determination and human rights. We prioritize direct collaboration with political and popular movements.

For the past 40 years, we have worked with farmers' movements, trade unions, women's organizations and youth organizations, all working to strengthen the social and political conditions.

Central America The committee has three main activities:

- Dispatch of work and solidarity brigades to Guatemala and Costa Rica
- Project work in Central America
- Awareness and information work in Denmark
